PRESIDENT
Darrel Millsap

VICE-PRESIDENT

THIS YEAR's frosh were very interested in all of the clubs and organizations and became officers in many of them before the end of the year. There was much competition for class offices in the autumn elections. When student body election time rolled around they campaigned like veteran politicians, and there was much close rivalry over who would be commissioners for the year 1950-51.

REGISTRATION DAY. The Panther looks on placidly while eager freshmen wait anxiously to begin their college education

Class of 1951

MEMBERS of the freshman class did much work in helping to promote this year's activities. They sponsored an outstanding float in the Homecoming parade and a freshman girl reigned as queen over the Homecoming festivities. They were prominent on the social activities and rally committees. In the spring they sponsored the annual pajamarino, which, although not too well attended, was one of the most entertaining of the year's dances.

Class of 1951

HARTNELL athletics were immeasurably aided by the young freshman athletes participating in the various sports. They held down first string berths on all of the teams and gained valuable experience for next season. With teams that kept the outcome of games in doubt until the last whistle, coaches were looking ahead to a good season next year because so many freshmen would be returning as sophomore veterans.

ROW 1 — Ted Carlyon, Milton Codioli, Marion Carder, Betty Buker, Phyllis Butters, Janet Christmas, Gayle Caskey, Audrey Capps.

Class of 1951

APPROXIMATELY 500 freshmen started their college careers in the right direction on registration day when they checked with their deans and advisors and planned their programs for the year. After a few days of losing their way around the campus they knew as much about the school as any "worldly" sophomore. Besides being one of the largest classes in recent years it was also one of the most enthusiastic groups.

Camille Johnson
EDITOR

FROM THE FIRST DAY of registration in the fall, to the warm spring day when La Reata finally went to press, La Reata staff was busy recording the year's events for students. Photographers were invariably shooting off flashbulbs at campus events and the results are presented in these pages. Heading the staff was Editor Camille Johnson, who was ably assisted by the photographers and writers pictured on these two pages.

THE HARTNELL COLLEGE cast of Delta Psi Omega came through with a very successful season and during the year staged five productions, under the direction of Mr. Harold Ulrici. "Angel Street" opened the year and was very well received. The famous morality play, "Everyman," was the group's Christmas presentation. A drama, "The Winslow Boy," was the third production. One of the modern classics, "The Enchanted Cottage," came next in the year, and the group closed the season with the comedy, "Years Ago."

Hartnell Band

Majorettes: Jolene Brogdon, Head Majorette Pat Lewis, Juledra Lewis, Carolyn McQuillen, and Dolores Piffero

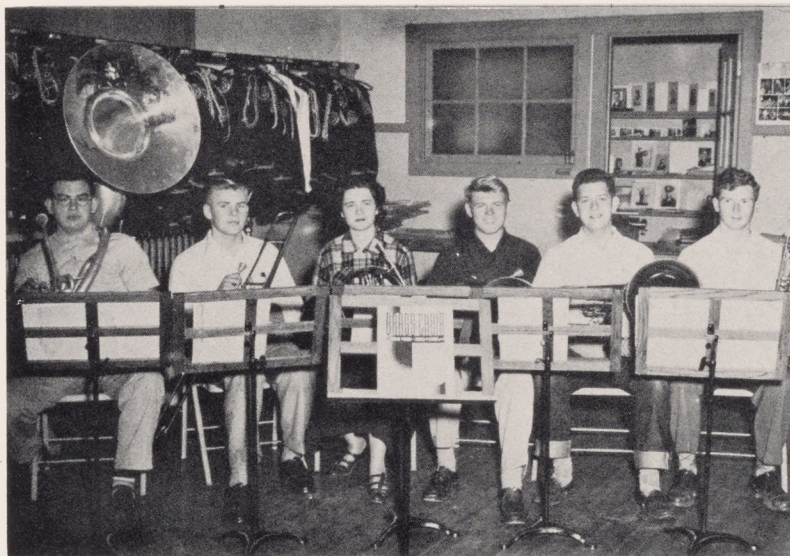

PEPPING UP the rooters at football games was one of the largest bands in Hartnell history. These musicians went to several out-of-town contests, marched in local parades, and were featured at pep rallies and assemblies. The five lovely majorettes gave a dash of color to the scene as the band marched through formations on the gridiron. The group is directed by Mr. Lorell McCann.

"Danny Dither"

ABSENCES and illnesses among cast members forced cancellation of two public performances, but The Hither and Thither of Danny Dither, the Hartnell music department's operetta, was presented for members of the student body on January 6. A huge cast was directed by Miss Vivian Stewart, Anita Turpin, Don Schrump, and Dean Stamatopoulos shared the leads in the production.

Field Day

At the courthouse the frosh were leading by a handle

HARTNELL freshmen were able to come through and best the upper classmen in the annual Field Day activities. The muddy brawl was followed by a Men's Club sponsored chicken dinner and dance in the men's gym. Ribbonero awards were given to Jeannette Crowell, Elizabeth Keller, and Virginia Vierra. Whiskerino prizes went to Frank Hazleton, Joe Matousek, Floyd Daniel, Ben Marcus, and Ken Smythe.

QUEEN CAROL STORMENT ruled with a smile over the parade, game, barbecue, and dance that made up this year's Homecoming Day. Awards were presented to Hartnell A. and M. for its parade float and to Bill Whited as the outstanding player of the Hartnell-S.F.C.C. football game, which S.F.C.C. won, 15-12.

Winter Ball

Several couples relax around the fireplace at the Inn

OUTSTANDING event of the fall social season was the annual Winter Ball, held December 19 at the Highlands Inn near Carmel. Music was furnished for about 70 couples by the orchestra of Don Dean, and a buffet supper was served. Commissioner of Social Activities Wayne Ingols was in charge of the affair.

Sadie Hawkins Day

Ken Dias couldn't find a tree, so he's up a pole

THOUGH rainy weather put a damper on many of the annual activities, Sadie Hawkins' Day still gave Hartnell's women their long-awaited run for the men. U.G.C. President Barbara Johnson and her committees successfully planned and executed the assembly, chase, and noon and evening dances that made the day a big hit with all.

Spring Prom

You and the night and the music

ONE OF THE MOST outstanding of the year's social affairs was the annual Spring Prom. A large group spent an enjoyable evening dining and dancing. Graduates will long remember their last formal dance as Hartnell students. Members of the social activities committee worked very hard on the decorations.

HEAD COACH

ALTHOUGH experiencing a bitter season, the Panthers scored wins over two excellent teams, Bakersfield and California Polytechnic.

The team was in good physical condition, yet it seemed plagued with injuries. Severest losses of the year were Ed Dysle and Loren Green at the two guard positions.

Head Coach "Ab" Wilson expects most of his material to return next year and, with the help of local high school graduates, to field one of Hartnell's best teams.

Baseball

Coach Jess Regli and Manager Francis Scilacci

BUILDING around a small nucleus of returning lettermen, Coach Regli had a fair season, winning some and dropping others. Most of the team is expected to return next season.

BILL COOKE was elected captain of the Hartnell baseball team, receiving this honor for two years in succession. Teammates who ended their junior college careers with Cooke were John Alsop, Charlie Happ, and Bill Casalegno. With better than 50 per cent of the roster returning next season, to which will be added many promising high school athletes, Coach Jess Regli is optimistic.

Track

Coach Ed Adams

THIS YEAR Coach Adams produced the best track team that Hartnell has fielded in several years. With several good sprinters and distance men, the track events were fairly strong.

Being particularly strong in the field events, the local took several first places with the shot-put, discus, javelin, broadjump, highjump, and pole vault.

All-around man on the team was Loren Green who took several places in every field event.

NOT LIVING up to preseason expectations were the Panther netmen who dropped tiffs to powerful San Jose State and San Mateo. Later in the season the locals retaliated by beating M.P.C., 5-2, and taking various other matches.

Veteran Gerald Skillicorn won the N.C.J.C.C. singles championship, then he and Bob Jones went on to take the N.C.J.C.C. doubles championship.

Thank You

As La Reata for 1950 goes to the lithographers, we are conscious of being indebted to many persons and business firms for aiding in publishing this annual.

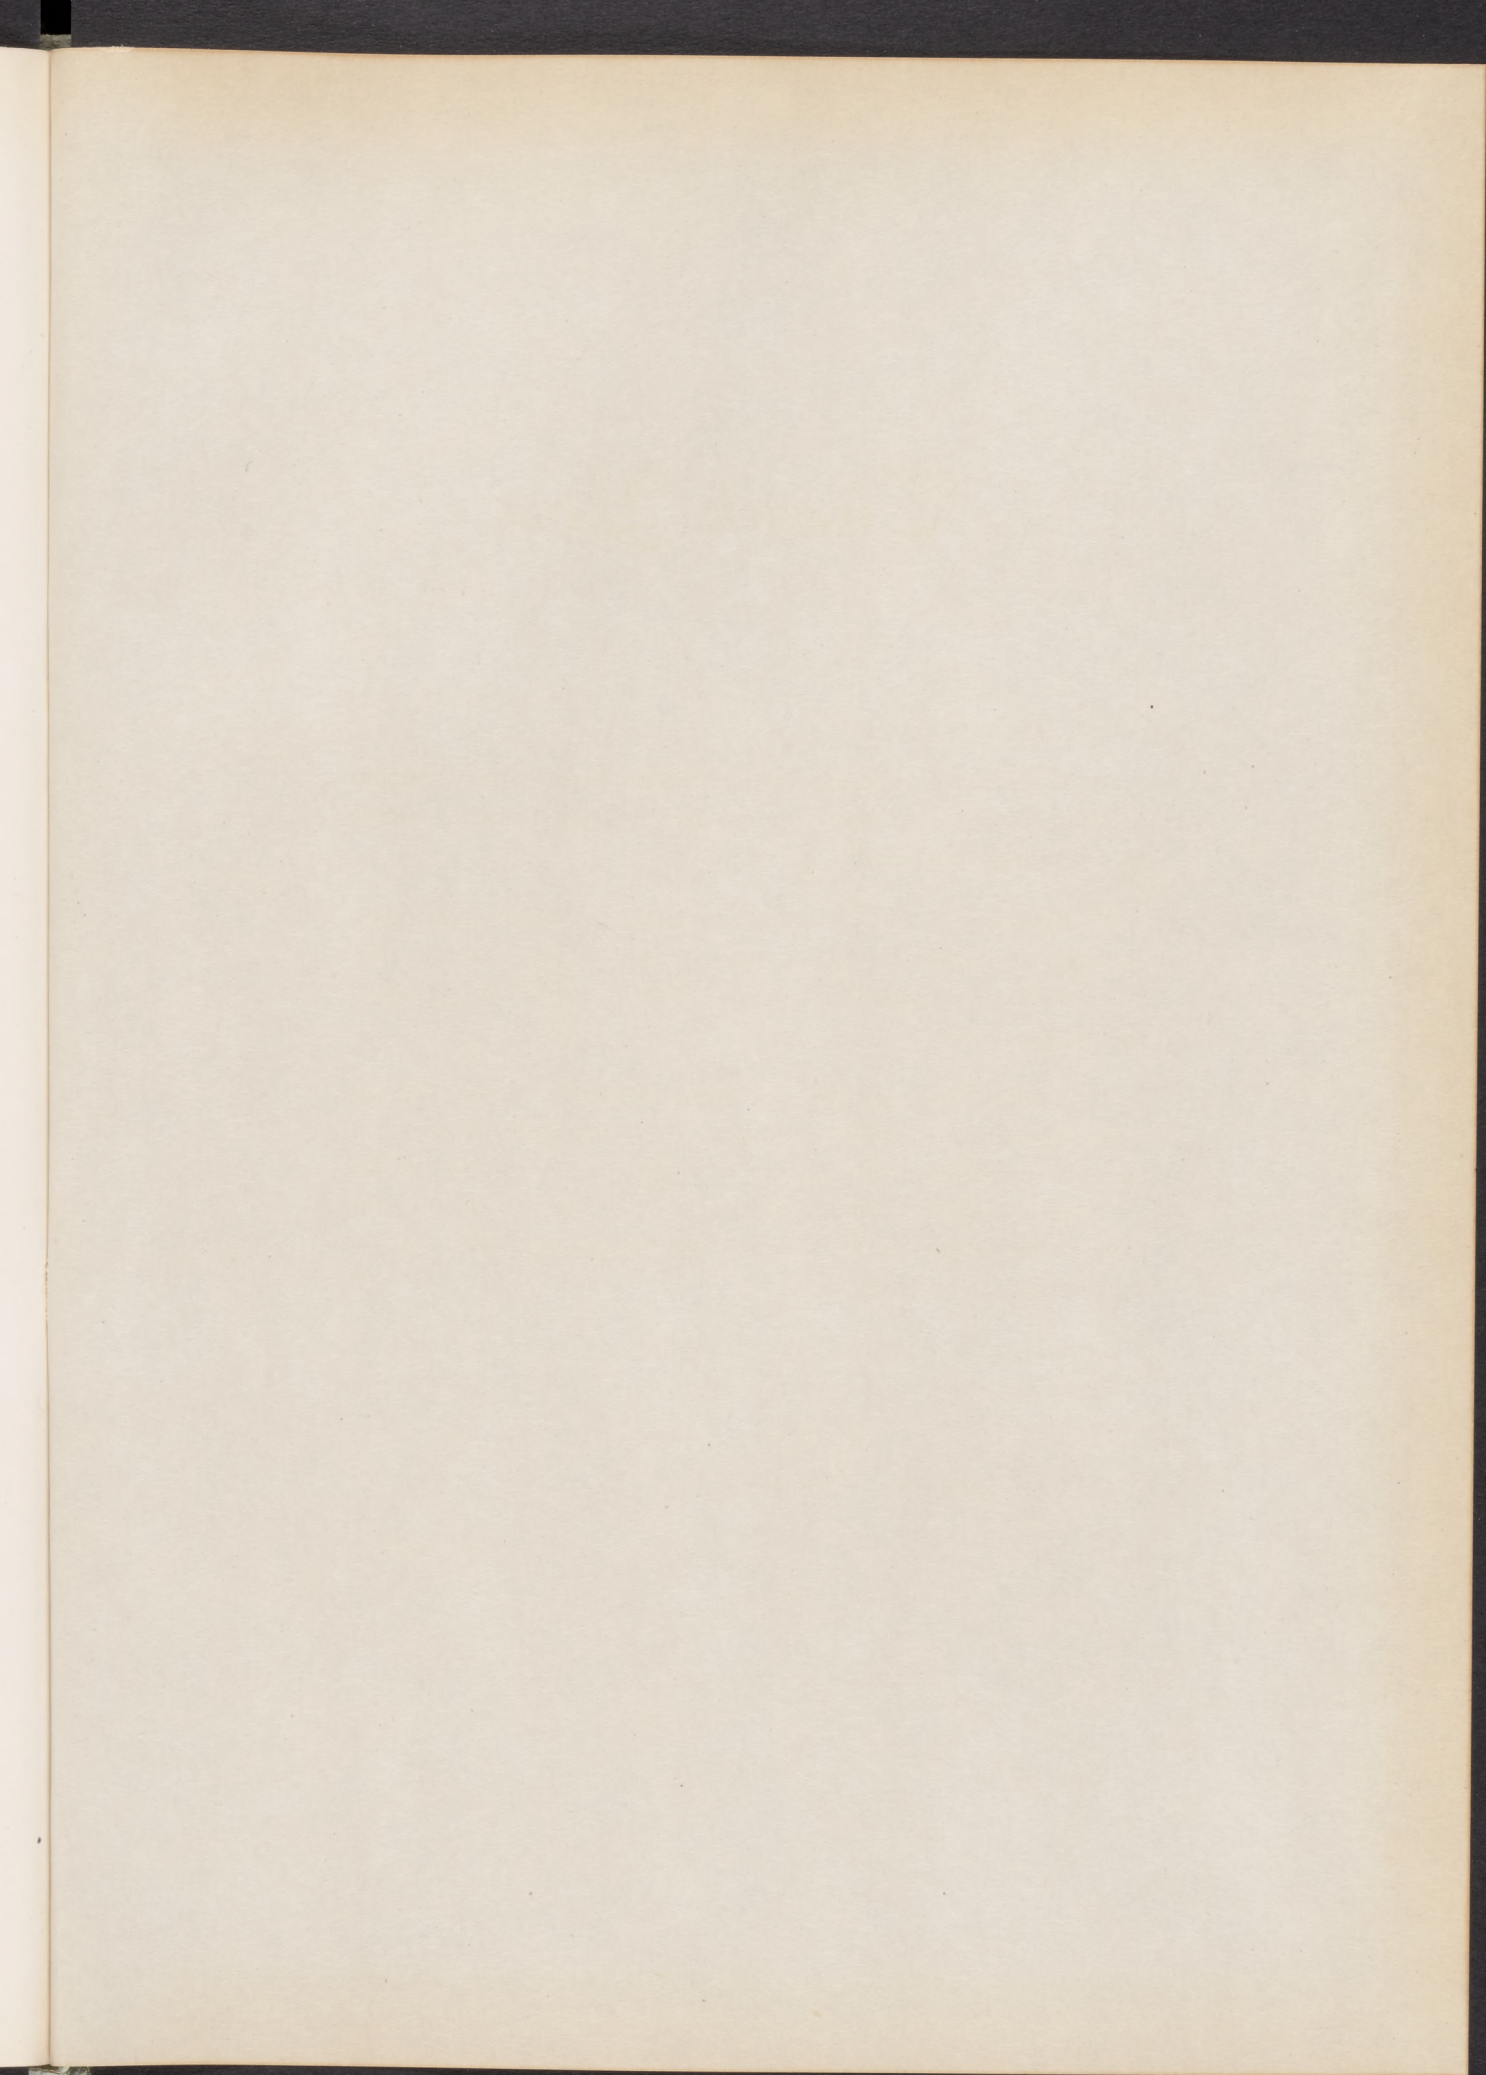

To President J. B. Lemos and the faculty we give appreciation for making possible the many necessary picture appointments. Mr. Leon Amyx was particularly patient with our questions regarding artistic problems.

El Camino Press, printers and lithographers in Salinas, had the task of putting our efforts on paper. We thank them for their numerous suggestions and the care with which they reproduced the pictures that make La Reata a pictorial record of this college year. Thanks also go to Mr. Hurl Swartz, portrait photographer, for the sophomore class photographs.

Covers are by the S. K. Smith Company of Los Angeles and the binding was done in the plant of the Benjamin Keys Company in San Francisco.

To all we again say, "Thank You."
